From the Pastor

The Old Testament reading from Deuteronomy praises God for inscribing the commandments in our very bodies. God's law is not distant or foreign, but a natural part of us. In his letter to the Colossians, Saint Paul echoes Moses, praising God for becoming one of us. The truly human, flesh-and-blood Jesus reminds us that God always wants to be recognizable and familiar to us. Jesus, who is also truly God, wants to be on intimate terms with each of us.

God's passionate desire to be known by us is almost too wonderful to take in. Luke's Gospel helps us understand how to respond. The Good Samaritan parable provides practical advice for those who believe in God's intimate love for them and want to share that love with others.

Peace,
Fr. Frank

NY Times said about the GODSPELL Broadway Revival: "The new production asserts from its first moments that this is not your alma mater's "Godspell." On the contrary, it insists, with an eagerness that soon begins to grate, that the story of Jesus and his apostles is so timely you'd better start tweeting about it right this minute." Auditions for casting are July 22 and 23 and many roles are double cast so there are opportunities for leads and solos. Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

Are you interested in the Catholic Faith? We will begin a new journey in faith to share the richness of the Catholic Church and our parish family. We invite you to learn what the Church teaches, and be introduced to some of our parish members. These gatherings that will begin in September are for inquirers and are open to: People who are unbaptized; Baptized Christians from other faith backgrounds; Adults who are already baptized Catholic, but who need to prepare for Confirmation and Holy Eucharist. For further information or help in this matter please contact Christine Ferreri at christineferreri79@gmail.com or through the parish office at (201) 327-5663.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise," (Luke 10:37)

This was Jesus' command at the end of the Good Samaritan Story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other? The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know or someone that looks different than you or someone that you don't like. All without expecting anything in return.

RECONNECT WITH FAITH THIS SUMMER

The lazy days of summer can make it tempting to be lazy about prayer and worship but the slower pace of summer makes it a great time to reconnect with the one who loves you most.

Make Mass. There's no vacation from Mass, even though we are on vacation. In fact admiring churches in new places and participating in different parish customs can freshen our own outlook.

Summer reading. Give beach reading a new meaning. Read a spiritual book of which you may have heard but not yet read. Whether a classic or a more contemporary religious book, reading it during the summer can give you more time to reflect on what you read.

Serve. Parish ministries usually suffer from low staffing during the summer. Call your parish office to see if you can fill in if help is needed

REPORTING SEXUAL ABUSE

The Archdiocese requires us and all parishes to provide the following information to the general public. We do so here as a sign of our commitment to the safety of our children. In every activity of St. Gabriel's Parish, parents are encouraged to participate. Every employee and volunteer has passed a background check. Mrs. Patricia Pula serves as our Safe Environment Coordinator. The Archdiocese takes very seriously any and all allegations of sexual misconduct by members of the clergy, Religious and lay staff of the Archdiocese. We encourage anyone with knowledge of an act of sexual misconduct to inform us immediately so that we may take appropriate action to protect others and provide support to victims of sexual abuse. Individuals who wish to report an allegation of sexual misconduct may do so by calling the Archdiocesan Office of Child and Youth Protection at (201) 407-3256.
