From the Pastor

What happens after we die? Most religions and philosophies provide some notion of this, but we are confounded by the mystery of it all. Today's readings give us a glimpse through the faith of martyrs and in the words of Jesus. In the Old Testament reading, the Maccabee brothers assert with total confidence that the God who gave them life would also raise them to eternal life. This was not universally accepted in ancient Israel. The Sadducees, who denied any resurrection of the dead, try to trap Jesus with a hypothetical riddle. Jesus, known for turning such things around, dismisses their unbelief, noting that even Moses knew that all are alive in God. Saint Paul tells the Thessalonians that we live in everlasting encouragement and hope, and Psalm 17 echoes this with words of faith that we will see God's face, waking in God's loving presence.

Peace and stay safe.
Fr. Frank

THE KNIGHTS CORNER

Seventeen men attended the monthly Men's Mass in October, sponsored by the Knights. As you can see from the photo at right, we welcome men of all shapes, sizes, and ages. There were even visitors from three other local parishes in attendance. Father Marty presided over the Mass and led the discussion afterward, which is always lively and relevant to topics of the day. Look for information on the November Mass and consider joining us. This is not strictly a Knights event; all Men are welcome.

The next council meeting will be on Monday, November 14th at 7:30pm. All members are encouraged to come and participate. A major agenda item will be the organization of volunteers for our annual assembly of "care packages" for U.S. Marines serving overseas, which will be held on November 19th.

Did you know? Tuesday was originally chosen as Election Day so that voters could attend church on Sunday, travel to the polling location (usually in the county seat) on Monday, and vote before Wednesday, which was usually when farmers would sell their produce at the market. In 1845, Congress mandated the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November. As followers of Christ, we are called to participate in public life. We encourage all who are eligible to vote on November 8th.

If you are interested in joining the St. Gabriel's Knights of Columbus, contact a current member or send us an email at knights@stgabrielSr.org.
